

Burnard W. Holtzclaw to Andrew Jackson, October 21, 1833, from Correspondence of Andrew Jackson. Edited by John Spencer Bassett.

BURNARD W. HOLTZCLAW TO JACKSON.

Hermitage, October 21, 1833.

Deare Sir, I Recived your Letter on the 20 of October. I am glade to Say we are all well at Presant. your Family are all In good Halth at this time and are giting alongue as well as I can. you wish to no about your crope of Cotton how moch I have Out. I will Tell you. I have One Hundred Thoson and I Think we have out In the field yet 60 or 70 Thosan or 90. I wose Plage a gratele about Our gin, I jist begining to gin, dont be unesy, I will do the best I Can

Deare Sir your Mares and Colts and work Horses and Mules and cows and Ox and Hogs and Sheeps and caffs and Stude all are well and fate. I have 86 Hogs to kill only I hav 7. Beffes to kill. we hav now wete and cold wether. This day we Snow and Hale cole I have all of my Shoes and Socks and Stocking made and Nite and making up the Winter Close. Andrew has not Rich the Hermitage yet but I have all Things Redy To Recivd him and are Looking for him daly and also will be glade to to see him at Home

Sir I have cut a new Rode on the Line betwin you and worde and want to Turn the Rode arown on the Line and fences in all the woods Next to woods I will feed my Hogs In hole and think I git water in this woods late water Stands after a Rain for 2 weeks by feding all winter on the Place can git water to Stand 6 or 8 month in the yeare cut out all the under groth

Library of Congress

I am respectfully your